

DC Arts & Humanities Education Collaborative

collaborating for collective impact

DC Collaborative Shared Mission

Working with our members, DC Arts & Humanities Education Collaborative advances equitable access to the Arts and Humanities for the DC public education system, serving students, teachers, administrators, and parents of traditional public and public charter schools.

DC Public Education System

- Students
- Teachers
- Administrators
- Parents and Families

ADVANCING
EQUITABLE ACCESS TO
ARTS & HUMANITIES
EDUCATION
FOR THE DC PUBLIC EDUCATION SYSTEM

DC Collaborative Services

DC Collaborative has two major areas of services to engage with its community: Education Programs that benefit students and teachers and Membership Services that benefit the arts and humanities community.

Education Programs

- Arts and Humanities for Every Student (AHFES)
- Distance Learning Resource Database
- Professional Development
- Teaching Artist Fellowship

Membership Services

- Cultural Organizations
- Teaching Artists/Practitioners
- Events & Networking
- Advocacy initiatives
- Online Membership Portal

DC Collaborative
Services

DC Co-lab Community Platform

DC Co-Lab is our Community Collaboration and Data Initiatives, and a platform available to the DC public education sector and our arts and humanities education community to garner feedback, create meaningful conversations, measure impact, enhance strategic planning, and further collaborations and partnerships.

Community Collaboration

The platform will be designed to further our community's collaborative work in order to achieve our shared visions and values.

- Steering committee
- Equity & Justice subcommittee
- Assessment & Evaluation subcommittee
- Programming subcommittee

Data Collection & Visualization

All current and future collective impact survey collections will live on the community platform where results that enhance strategic purposes will be visualized.

DC Co-lab
Community Platform

DC Collaborative & External Collaborators

DC Arts & Humanities Education Collaborative engages collaborators across the District for varied and creative ways to advance equitable access to arts and humanities education.

External Collaborators

Non-Member Organizations

- Other Community-based education programming
- Advocacy affinity groups
- Other collaborators

Aligned Funders

- DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities
- Local Government grantors
- Businesses
- Sponsors